London Architecture Biennale presents the Borough Market's 250th Anniversary Feast. Come and join us for a huge celebration including delicious food, drink and live music.

22nd June 2006

8pm – 12pm

Borough Market's Green Market

⇌ ⊕ London Bridge

£30 (advance tickets only)

Food & Drink

Thomasina Miers (food writer, cook and winner of BBC Masterchef) will curate, cook and attend the Feast. Delicious food and alcohol will be provided by traders of Borough Market including sausages by Sillfileld Farm, Neals Yard cheese, handpicked scallops from the divers at Shellseekers, and a whole host of others. Utobeer and Bedales will provide a selection of beer and wine.

Live Music

Live music will be performed throughout the evening including headlining act, Ninja Tunes' Pest and South London band The Cracked. The Borough Music School will entertain guests as they arrive.
